

Castle Ruins Ceremony at The Top of Gibbet Hill

A full-page photograph of a bride and groom in formal wedding attire. The groom is in a black tuxedo with a white bow tie, and the bride is in a white wedding dress with a long train, holding a bouquet of pink and white roses. They are standing on a grassy hill, kissing. In the background, there is a church with a steeple and a line of trees under a bright sky. A large grey circle with a white border is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing text.

For weddings that fall between mid-June and early October,
we offer the option of having your ceremony at the top of Gibbet Hill.

This is an exclusive ceremony location,
limited to 4 per year.

At the top of Gibbet Hill lie the castle ruins originally built by General William Bancroft. A strikingly unique setting for your wedding ceremony, and an unforgettable guest experience.

Ivy covered ruins create the perfect backdrop

A large crowd of people, mostly in formal attire, is gathered for a wedding ceremony. In the foreground, guests are seated, looking towards the ceremony area. In the middle ground, a larger group of people stands behind a black metal railing on a stone ledge, looking up at a large, multi-story stone ruin. The ruin has several arched openings and is surrounded by lush green trees and foliage. The scene is set outdoors during the day, with sunlight filtering through the leaves.

Breathtaking views from all angles
