

Castle Ruins Ceremony at The Top of Gibbet Hill

For weddings that fall between mid-June and early October,
we offer the option of having your ceremony at the top of Gibbet Hill.

This is an exclusive ceremony location,
limited to 4 per year.

At the top of Gibbet Hill lie the castle ruins originally built by General William Bancroft. A strikingly unique setting for your wedding ceremony, and an unforgettable guest experience.

You and your guests will be shuttled in SUVs through the cow pasture of Gibbet Hill.

Our team is there with you every step of the way.

Ivy covered ruins create the perfect backdrop

A large crowd of people, mostly in formal attire, is gathered for a wedding ceremony. In the foreground, several guests are seated, looking towards the ceremony area. Behind them, a larger group of people stands on a raised platform, some holding cameras. The background features a large, multi-story stone tower with arched openings, partially covered in ivy. The scene is surrounded by lush green trees and foliage, with sunlight filtering through the leaves. The text "Breathtaking views from all angles" is overlaid in the center of the image.

Breathtaking views from all angles

Upper-
level
viewing

A bride is seen from behind, walking away through a rustic stone archway. She is wearing a white lace wedding dress with a low back and a full skirt. She is holding a bouquet of white flowers. The archway is made of large, rough-hewn stones. The ground is dirt and covered with fallen leaves. There are green plants and trees in the background.

After the 'I do's'
are done, your guests will be shuttled back to
The Barn for an extended 90-
minute cocktail
reception on the deck.

Take advantage of the unique photo opportunities the ruins offer...
